Re: NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY
Case 01-CA-317518

Dear Ms. DelVecchio:

We have carefully investigated and considered your charge that Northeastern University has violated the National Labor Relations Act.

Decision to Dismiss: The charge alleges that Northeastern interrogated employees about “chalking” activities and threatened employees with arrest for engaging in these activities in violation of Section 8(a)(1) of the National Labor Relations Act. The investigation revealed that an incident took place during an event on campus on April 27, 2023. The incident involved certain individuals who apparently wrote on a “2023” structure that Northeastern had on campus. In response, Northeastern investigated a complaint relating to the incident and questioned individuals who were involved. However, the evidence did not show any unlawful interrogation or threat in response to protected activity. Thus, it does not appear that the Northeastern violated the Act by questioning employees about certain conduct as part of an investigation. Therefore, I am dismissing your charge.

Charging Party’s Right to Appeal: The Charging Party may appeal my decision to the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, through the Office of Appeals.

Means of Filing: You must file your appeal electronically or provide a written statement explaining why electronic submission is not possible or feasible. Written instructions for the NLRB’s E-Filing system and the Terms and Conditions of the NLRB’s E-Filing policy are available at www.nlr.gov. See User Guide. A video demonstration which provides step-by-step instructions and frequently asked questions are also available at www.nlr.gov. If you require additional assistance with E-Filing, please contact e-filing@nlrb.gov.

You are encouraged to also submit a complete statement of the facts and reasons why you believe my decision was incorrect. If you cannot file electronically, please send the appeal and your written explanation of why you cannot file electronically to the General Counsel at the National Labor Relations Board, Attn: Office of Appeals, 1015 Half Street SE, Washington,

DC 20570-0001. Unless filed electronically, a copy of the appeal should also be sent to me. The main telephone number for the Office of Appeals is (202)273-3760.

The appeal MAY NOT be filed by fax or email. The Office of Appeals will not process faxed or emailed appeals.

Appeal Due Date: The appeal is due on August 23, 2023. If the appeal is filed electronically, the transmission of the entire document through the Agency's website must be completed no later than 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the due date. If filing by mail or by delivery service an appeal will be found to be timely filed if it is postmarked or given to a delivery service no later than August 22, 2023. If an appeal is postmarked or given to a delivery service on the due date, it will be rejected as untimely. If hand delivered, an appeal must be received by the General Counsel in Washington D.C. by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the appeal due date. If an appeal is not submitted in accordance with this paragraph, it will be rejected.

Extension of Time to File Appeal: The General Counsel may allow additional time to file the appeal if the Charging Party provides a good reason for doing so and the request for an extension of time is received on or before August 23, 2023. The request may be filed electronically through the E-File Documents link on our website www.nlr.gov, by fax to (202)273-4283, by mail, or by delivery service. The General Counsel will not consider any request for an extension of time to file an appeal received after August 23, 2023, even if it is postmarked or given to the delivery service before the due date. Unless filed electronically, a copy of the extension of time should also be sent to me.

Confidentiality: We will not honor requests to limit our use of appeal statements or evidence. Upon a request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) by a party during the processing of an appeal, the Agency's FOIA Branch discloses appeal statements, redacted for personal privacy, confidential source protection, or other applicable FOIA exemptions. In the event the appeal is sustained, any statement or material submitted may be introduced as evidence at a hearing before an administrative law judge. However, certain evidence produced at a hearing may be protected from public disclosure by demonstrated claims of confidentiality.

Very truly yours,

Laura A. Sacks
Regional Director
